

PRINCI Allergen Information | Food

[Notice (Please be sure to read)] We provide the information on whether or not allergens are used as ingredients for each product.

• Since manufacturing plants and stores also handle ingredients containing other allergens that are not originally contained in the product, there is a possibility that these substances may come into contact with or get mixed into the product.

• Each person has a different sensitivity to allergens. We recommend that you consult with a medical expert before you make a decision on the purchase or consumption of an allergen-containing product.

• We provide the information on 8 specified ingredients required to be labeled by the Food Labeling Act. 20 items equivalent to specified ingredients recommended to be labeled, and fish and shellfish.

• "fish and shellfish" is an exception allowed under the Food Labeling Act only when it is not possible to identify which type of fish and/or shellfish is contained in the ingredients such as hydrolyzed protein, fish sauce, fish sauce powder, fish meat paste, fish oil, and seafood extract.
